

Do	We did it! We made it!	Make
'Do' for Activities	A primeira expressão com o verbo “to do” é a forma de expressarmos em inglês a enorme alegria do momento, em que ao executarmos o solicitado conseguimos obter o resultado que esperávamos. Já na segunda expressão com “to make” é a nossa maneira de expressar o alívio, em chegar finalmente ao lugar onde queríamos chegar (missão elaborada, calculada, planejada, finalizada e cumprida).	'Make' for Constructing, Building, Creating something that you can touch. do housework	Tanto o verbo “make” como o verbo “do” traduzem-se como fazer. Por isso é lógico que os portugueses e brasileiros tenham dúvidas sobre qual devem usar. Geralmente “to do” significa fazer com o sentido de realizar ou levar a cabo:	make food
do the ironing		make a cup of tea
do the dishes		Do you know how to make bread?
do a job		All the bottle caps are made in Belgium.
I'm not doing anything today		Who made this lovely birthday cake?
		make plans
He does everything for his mother.		make it clear (to)
She's doing nothing at the moment.		make a complaint (about)
		make a deal (with)
How do you do?		make a decision (about)
What do you do?	make a payment
“Do” for general ideas I'm not doing anything today. He does everything for his mother. She's doing nothing at the moment.	make a phone call (to) make money make an excuse make an effort We made an agreement Peter made a tree house for his children
Do in expressions do one's best do good do harm do a favour do business Do it now When are you planning to do it?	He's doing time in prison. (Ele está cumprindo pena na prisão)	Important Expressions with 'Make' make an exception make arrangements make a telephone call make a decision make a mistake make noise
	If you do me this favor you'll make my day
	(Se me fizer este favor alegrará o meu dia.)

		